Steps

I am using the Pistachio Paste (1/2 Cup or 100 g) instead of grinding pistachios, it's so easier !

If you live in the states, pistachio pastes can be purchased online easily.

If you live in Los Angeles, check the Surf as stores

You may find pistachio paste in specialized stores, but the best way to enjoy your own pastries is to make the paste yourself

I am showing you a few recipes HERE

1. In a mixing bowl, whisk together the Egg Yolks (3) and the Sugar (1/3 Cup or 80 g)
2. In a saucepan, warm : the Pistachio Paste (1/2 Cup or 100 g), the Almond Extract (2 drops), the Milk (1 Cup or 250 g) and the Whipping Cream (1 Cup or 250 g)
3. My Pistachio Paste was too compact and I had to mix it using a hand blender
4. Bring to a boil
5. Pour the hot liquid onto the eggs/sugar mixture
6. Whisk until smooth
7. Strain the mixture into a bowl
8. I find it more convenient to use a measuring cup with spout

Molds

9. For creme brulées, the typical serving containers are terra cotta ramekins

10. Pour in the mixture: Hermé mentions 0.39" (or 25/64" or 1 cm) deep, yet I prefer 0.78" (or 25/32" or 2 cm)...

11. Hermé doesn't mention to use the traditional roasting tray with hot water, that is so simpler !

Baking

12. Place in the oven and bake at 245 F / 120 C

13. While it's baking, shake one ramekin and check the center : let them bake until they are barely softly set (almost liquid)

Cooling down

14. Take the ramekins out, let them cool down at room temperature. Placing the ramekins in the fridge to cool completely for at least 2 hours. This can even be done overnight without affecting the texture.

Caramelizing

15. You will need a torch which is the best method. Otherwise, you can use the broiler of your oven
16. Take the ramekins out of your fridge
17. Spread evenly some Sugar, evenly on the top of each ramekin, using a spoon or a strainer
18. Using the torch, melt the sugar and form a crispy top
19. You may also use the broiler
20. This is a nice crispy top !
21. Hermé didn't mention it, but I like to add some crushed raw unsalted Pistachios
